(3) A Government servant, who is dismissed or removed from service and is reinstated on appeal or revision, shall be entitled to count for leave his service prior to dismissal or removal, as the case may be.

(4) A Government servant, who having retired on compensation or invalid pension or gratuity is re-employed and allowed to count his past service for pension, shall be entitled to count his former service towards leave.

9. Commutation of one kind of leave into another.- (1) At the request of a Government servant the authority which granted him leave may commute it retrospectively into leave of a different kind which was due and admissible to him when leave was granted, but the Government servant cannot claim such commutation as a matter of right.

Note.- Extraordinary leave granted on medical certificate or otherwise may be commuted retrospectively into leave not due subject to the provisions of rule 30.

(2) Applications for leave on grounds other than ill health should be made at least three weeks before such date. This limit would, however, be six weeks if the leave applied for is preparatory to retirement. The authority competent to grant leave may accept belated application at its discretion.

14. Leave account. - A leave account shall be maintained in Form 2 for each Government servant by the Head of Office.

15. Verification of title to leave. - No leave shall be granted to a Government servant until a report regarding its admissibility has been obtained from the authority maintaining the leave account.

16. Leave not to be granted in certain circumstances. - Leave shall not be granted to a Government servant whom a competent punishing authority has decided to dismiss, remove or compulsorily retire from Government service.

17. Such application shall be submitted, as far as possible, prior to or simultaneously with the commencement of the period for which leave is applied:

Provided that, in exceptional circumstances where it is not reasonably practicable for the Government servant to submit an application within the aforementioned time limit, it may be submitted not later than 7 days from the date of commencement of the period of leave applied for:

Provided further that, in exceptional circumstances, where the authority competent to sanction leave is satisfied that it was not reasonably practicable for the Government servant to submit the required medical certificate along with his application for leave, it may, at its discretion, condone a delay of not more than 7 days, counted from the date of commencement of the period of leave applied for, in the submission of medical certificate by such Government servant.]

(Substituted by F.D. Notification No. 118/2306/85/R-1/IV dated 19.3.86)

(2) A Medical Officer shall not recommend the grant of leave in any case in which there appears to be no reasonable prospect that the Government servant concerned will ever be fit to resume his duties and in such case, the opinion that the Government servant is permanently unfit for Government service shall be recorded in the Medical Certificate.

(3) The authority competent to grant leave may, at its discretion, secure a second medical opinion by requesting a Government Medical Officer not below the rank of a Civil Surgeon or Staff Surgeon, to have the applicant medically examined on the earliest possible date.

(4) It shall be the duty of the Government Medical Officer referred to in sub-rule (3) to express an opinion both as regards the facts of the illness and as regards the necessity for the amount of leave recommended and for that purpose he may either require the applicant to appear before himself or before a medical officer nominated by himself.

(5) The grant of a medical certificate under this rule does not in itself confer upon the Government servant concerned any right to leave, the medical certificate shall be forwarded to the authority competent to grant leave and orders of that authority awaited.

(6) The authority competent to grant leave may, at its discretion, waive the production of a medical certificate in case of an application for leave for a period not exceeding [seven] days at a time. Such leave shall not, however, be treated as leave on medical certificate and shall be debited against leave other than leave on medical grounds.

(Substituted for "three" by F.D. Notification No. 1331/2002/82/R-1/IV dated 11.10.82)

18. Leave to a Government servant who is unlikely to be fit to return to duty. - (1) (a) When a medical authority has reported that there is no reasonable prospect that the Government servant will ever be fit to return to duty, leave shall not necessarily be refused to such Government servant.

(b) The leave may be granted, if due, by the authority competent to grant leave on the following conditions: -

(i) If the medical authority is unable to say with certainty that the Government servant will never again be fit for service, leave not exceeding twelve months in all may be granted and such leave shall not be extended without further reference to a medical authority;

(ii) If a Government servant is declared by a medical authority to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service, leave or an extension of leave may be granted to him after the report of the medical authority has been received, provided the amount of leave as debited to the leave account together with any period of duty beyond the date of the report of the medical authority does not exceed six months.

(2) A Government servant who is declared by a medical authority to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service shall, -

(a) If he is on duty, be invalided from service from the date of relief of his duties, which should be arranged without delay on receipt of the report of the medical authority, if however, he is granted leave under sub-rule (1) he shall be invalided from service on the expiry of such leave.

(b) If he is already on leave, be invalided from service on the expiry of that leave or extension of leave, if any, granted to him under sub-rule (1).

19. Commencement and termination of leave. - Except as provided in rule 20 leave ordinarily begins on the day on which the transfer of charge is effected and ends on the day preceding that on which the charge is resumed.

20. Combination of holidays with leave. - (1) Except in cases where for administrative reasons the leave sanctioning authority has specifically withheld the permission for prefixing and/or suffixing holiday(s) to leave, when the day, immediately preceding the day on which a Government servant's leave begins or immediately following the day on which his leave expires is holiday or one of a series of holidays the Government servant can leave his station at the close of the day before, or return to it on the day following, such holiday or series of holidays.

(2) In the case of leave on medical certificate, if the day on which a Government servant is certified medically fit for re-joining duty happens to be a holiday, the day shall be suffixed to his medical leave, and such day(s) shall not be counted as leave.

(3) If holidays are prefixed to leave, the leave and any consequent re-arrangement of pay and allowances take effect from the day after the holidays.

(4) If holidays are suffixed to leave, the leave is treated as having terminated and any consequent re-arrangement of pay and allowances takes effect from the day on which the leave would have ended if holidays had not been suffixed.

21. Intimation of Leave at credit. - The order sanctioning earned leave/half pay leave to a Government servant shall indicate the balance of such leave at his credit.

22. Recall to duty before expiry of leave. - A Government servant while on leave if recalled to duty before expiry of the leave, he shall be entitled:-

(a) If the leave from which he is recalled is in India, to be treated as on duty from the date on which he starts for the station to which he is ordered, and to draw :-

(i) travelling allowance under rules made in this behalf for the journey; and

(ii) leave salary, until he joins his post, at the same rate at which he would have drawn it but for recall to duty.

(b) If the leave from which he is recalled is out of India, to count the time spent on the voyage to India as duty for purposes of calculating leave, and to receive-

(i) leave salary, during the voyage to India and for the period from the date of landing in India to the date of joining his post, at the same rate at which he would have drawn it but for recall to duty ;

(ii) a free passage to India;

(iii) refund of his passage from India if he has not completed half the period of his leave by the date of leaving for India on recall, or three months, whichever is shorter;

(iv) travelling allowance, under the rules for the time being in force, for travel from the place of landing in India to the place of duty.

23. Return from leave. - (1) A Government servant on leave shall not return to duty before the expiry of the period of leave granted to him unless he is permitted to do so by the authority which granted him leave.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), a Government servant on leave preparatory to retirement shall be precluded from returning to duty, save with the consent of the authority competent to appoint him to the post from which he proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement.

(3) A Government servant who has taken leave on medical certificate may not return to duty until he has produced a medical certificate of fitness in Form 4.

(4) (a) A Government servant returning from leave is not entitled, in the absence of specific orders to that effect, to resume as a matter of course the post which he held before going on leave.

(b) Such Government servant shall report his return to duty to the authority which granted him leave or to the authority, if any, specified in the order granting him leave and await orders.

Note.- A Government servant who has been suffering from tuberculosis may be allowed to resume duty on the basis of Fitness Certificate which recommends light work for him.

24. Absence after expiry of leave. - (1) Unless the authority competent to grant leave extends the leave, Government servant who remains absent after the end of leave is entitled to no leave salary for the period of such absence and that period shall be debited against his leave account as though it were half pay leave to the extent such leave is due, the period in excess of such leave due being treated as extraordinary leave.

(2) Wilful absence from duty after the expiry of leave renders a Government servant liable to disciplinary action.

CHAPTER IV - KINDS OF LEAVE DUE AND ADMISSIBLE

25. Earned leave for Government servant serving in Departments other than vacation Department.- (1) (a) A Government servant who is serving in a Department other than vacation Department shall be entitled to 30 days earned leave in every calendar year.

"Provided that where the earned leave at the credit of Government servant as on the last day of December or June is 240 days or less but more than 225 days, the advance credit of 15 days earned leave on first day of January or July to be afforded in the manner indicated under clause (b) shall instead of being credited in leave account be kept separately and first adjusted against the earned leave that the Government servant takes during that half year and the balance, if any, shall be credited to the leave account at the close of the half year, subject to the condition that balance of such earned leave plus leave already at credit do not exceed the maximum limit of 240 days/"

(Deleted by F.D. Notification No. G-3/1/96/C/IV dated 14.3.96)

(2) Subject to the provision of sub-rule (3) the maximum earned leave that may be granted at a time to a Government servant shall be 120 days.

(3) Earned leave may be granted to a Government servant exceeding a period of 120 days but not exceeding [240] days if the entire leave so granted or any portion thereof is spent outside India, Bangladesh, Burma, Ceylon, Bhutan, Nepal and Pakistan:

(Substituted by F.D. Notification No. G-1/2/96/IV. dated 2nd June 1997)

Provided that where earned leave exceeding a period of 120 days is granted under this sub-rule the period of such leave spent in India shall not in the aggregate exceed the aforesaid limit of 120 days.

26. (3) [If a Government servant has availed of extra-ordinary leave and/or some period of absence has been treated as 'dies-non' in a half year, the credit to be afforded to his leave account, at the commencement of the next half year shall be reduced by 1/10th of the period of such leave and/or dies-non, subject to a maximum of 15 days.]

(Substituted by F.D. Notification No. 1390/203/80/R-1/IV dated 27.10.80)

27. Earned leave for persons serving in vacation Department.- (1) A Government servant serving in a Vacation Department shall not be entitled to any earned leave in respect of duty performed in any year in which he avails himself of the full vacation.

(2) The earned leave admissible to such a Government servant in respect of any year in which he is prevented from availing himself of the full vacation is such proportion of 30 days earned leave as the number of days of Vacation not taken bears to the full vacation.

If in any year he does not avail himself of the vacation, earned leave is admissible to him in respect of that year in accordance with the provisions of rule 25.

(3) Vacation may be taken in combination with or in continuation of any kind of leave under this rule, provided that the total duration of the vacation and earned leave taken in conjunction, whether the earned leave is taken in combination with or in continuation of other leave or not, shall not exceed the amount of Earned leave due and admissible to the officer at a time under rule 25:

Provided further that the total duration of vacation, earned leave and commuted leave taken in conjunction shall not exceed 210 days.

If, however, the entire spell of leave or portion thereof is spent elsewhere than in India, Bangladesh, Burma, Ceylon, Bhutan, Nepal and Pakistan, the maximum limit shall be 240 days subject to the condition that portion spent in India, Burma, Ceylon, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Nepal and Pakistan is not more than 210 days.

Explanation.- For the purpose of this rule, the term 'Year' shall be construed not as meaning a calendar year in which duty is performed but as meaning twelve months of actual duty in a vacation Department.

Note.- (1) A Government servant entitled to vacation shall be considered to have availed himself of a vacation or a portion of a vacation unless he has been required by general or special orders of a higher authority to forgo such vacation or portion of a vacation:

Provided that if he has been prevented by such order from enjoying more than fifteen days of the vacation, he shall be considered to have availed himself of no portion of the vacation.

Note.- (2) When a Government servant serving in a Vacation Department proceeds on leave before completing a full year of duty, the earned leave admissible to him shall be calculated not with reference to the vacations which fall during the period of actual duty rendered.

28. Half pay leave.- (a) A Government servant shall be entitled to half pay leave of 20 days in respect of each completed year of service.

Note.- Completed year of service means continuous service for one year under the Government of Madhya Pradesh and includes period spent on duty as well as leave including half pay leave and extra-ordinary leave.

(b) The half pay leave due may be granted to a Government servant on medical certificate or on private affairs. Such leave on medical certificate shall be given on production of a medical certificate from such medical authority as Government may by general or special order prescribe in this behalf and for a period not exceeding that recommended by the medical authority. Such medical leave shall not be granted unless the authority competent to sanction leave is satisfied that there is a reasonable probability that the Government servant will be fit to return to duty on its expiry. Half pay leave on private affairs also shall not be granted unless the authority competent to sanction leave has reason to believe that the Government servant will return to duty on its expiry or unless it is included in the grant of leave expressed to be preparatory to retirement.

29. Commuted leave.- (1) Commuted leave not exceeding half the amount of half pay leave due may be granted on medical certificate only to a Government servant subject to the following conditions:-

(i) When commuted leave is granted, twice the amount of such leave shall be debited against the half pay leave due.

(ii) No commuted leave may be granted unless the authority competent to sanction leave has reason to believe that the Government servant will return to duty on its expiry.

(iii) Commuted leave shall not be granted preparatory to retirement.

(iv) [Deleted.]
(Substituted by F.D. Notification No. 118/2306/85/R-1/IV dated 19.3.86)

[(1-A) Half pay leave up to maximum of 180 days may be allowed to be commuted during entire service (without production of medical certificate) where such leave is utilised for an approved course of study certified to be in the public interest by the leave sanctioning authority.]
(Substituted by F.D. Notification No. 118/2306/85/R-1/IV dated 19.3.86)

(2) Where a Government servant who has been granted commuted leave resigns from service or at his request permitted to retire voluntarily without returning to duty, the commuted leave shall be treated as half pay leave and the difference between the leave salary in respect of commuted leave and half pay leave shall be recovered:

Provided that no such recovery shall be made if the retirement is by reason of ill-health incapacitating the Government servant for further service or in the event of his death.

Note.- Commuted leave may be granted at the request of the Government servant even when earned leave is due to him.

30. Leave not due.- (1) Save in the case of leave preparatory to retirement, leave not due may be granted to a Government servant subject to the following conditions:-

(a) The authority competent to grant leave is satisfied that there is reasonable prospect of the Government servant returning to duty on its expiry.

(b) Leave not due shall be limited to the half pay leave he is likely to earn thereafter.

(c) Leave not due during the entire service shall be limited to a maximum of 360 days, out of which not more than 90 days at a time and 180 days in all may be otherwise than on medical certificate.

(d) Leave not due shall be debited against the half pay leave the Government servant may earn subsequently.

(2) (a) Where a Government servant who has been granted leave not due resigns from service or at his request permitted to retire voluntarily without returning to duty, the leave not due shall be cancelled, his resignation or retirement taking effect from the date on which such leave had commenced, and the leave salary shall be recovered.

(b) Where a Government servant who having availed himself of leave not due returns to duty but resigns or retires from service before he has earned such leave, he shall be liable to refund the leave salary to the extent the leave has not been earned subsequently:

Provided that no leave salary shall be recovered under clause (a) or clause (b) if the retirement is by reason of ill-health incapacitating the Government servant for further service or in the event of his death.
